GRANT RANCH HISTORY

In the late 60's a retired railroad worker and a beautician decided to settle in Marengo with their 3 children and open a bar. The Grant Ranch was born was born, Duane & Mary Grant ran the west side Grant ranch for a few years before moving the bar to the south side of Marengo Square opening the second Grant Ranch. In the 80's they moved to Keswick, opening the third Grant Ranch. After several years, they retired from the bar business. In 2003, their only daughter, Sherry Fisher, continued the family bar & restaurant tradition by restoring a falling building on the Sigourney Square. After 16 years, she also retired from the bar & restaurant business. In 2020, Duane & Mary's first-born grandchild, Danette, started the tradition again using the Grant Ranch name once again. The remodel of a building on the Sigourney Square was made possible with the help of her family including her mom, Uncle Scott & Aunt Sally Grant, brother Deric Bazyn, her husband Dan, and her children Makayla, Gavin, Dawson, Caden, & Maurice.

Since opening December 2020, Grant Ranch Grub & Pub have received a few awards. In 2024, 2025, & 2026 Grant Ranch Grub & Pub received the Homebase Top Workplace Award.
