Grant Ranch History

In the late 60's a retired railroad worker & a beautician decided to settle in Marengo with their 3 children and opened a bar. The Grant Ranch was born, Duane & Mary Grant ran the west side Grant Ranch for a few years before moving the bar to the south side of Marengo Square opening the 2nd Grant Ranch. In the 80's they moved to Keswick, opening the 3rd

Grant Ranch. After a number of years they retired from the bar business and the name sat unused for many years. In 2003, their only daughter, Sherry Fisher, continued the family bar & restaurant tradition by restoring a falling building on the Sigourney Square. After 16 years, she to retired from the bar & restaurant business. In 2020, Duane & Mary's first-born grandchild, Danette, started the tradition again using the Grant Ranch name once again. The remodel of building on the Sigourney Square was made possible with the help of her family including her mom, Uncle Scott & Aunt Sally Grant, brother Deric Bazyn, her husband Dan, and her children, Makayla, Gavin, Dawson, Caden, & Reece. Grant Ranch Grub & Pub is committed to supporting the community and area schools.
